Property Description

Woodside Greathouse is a wonderful traditional Barbadian plantation style home being offered for sale on the popular Bay Street steps away from Carlisle Bay on the South Coast of Barbados. This stunning historic home offers over 10,000 square feet of covered space sitting on two plots comprising over 2 acres of prime land across the street from the beach. The property consists of the main home and an additional outbuilding which functions as a doctor's clinic.

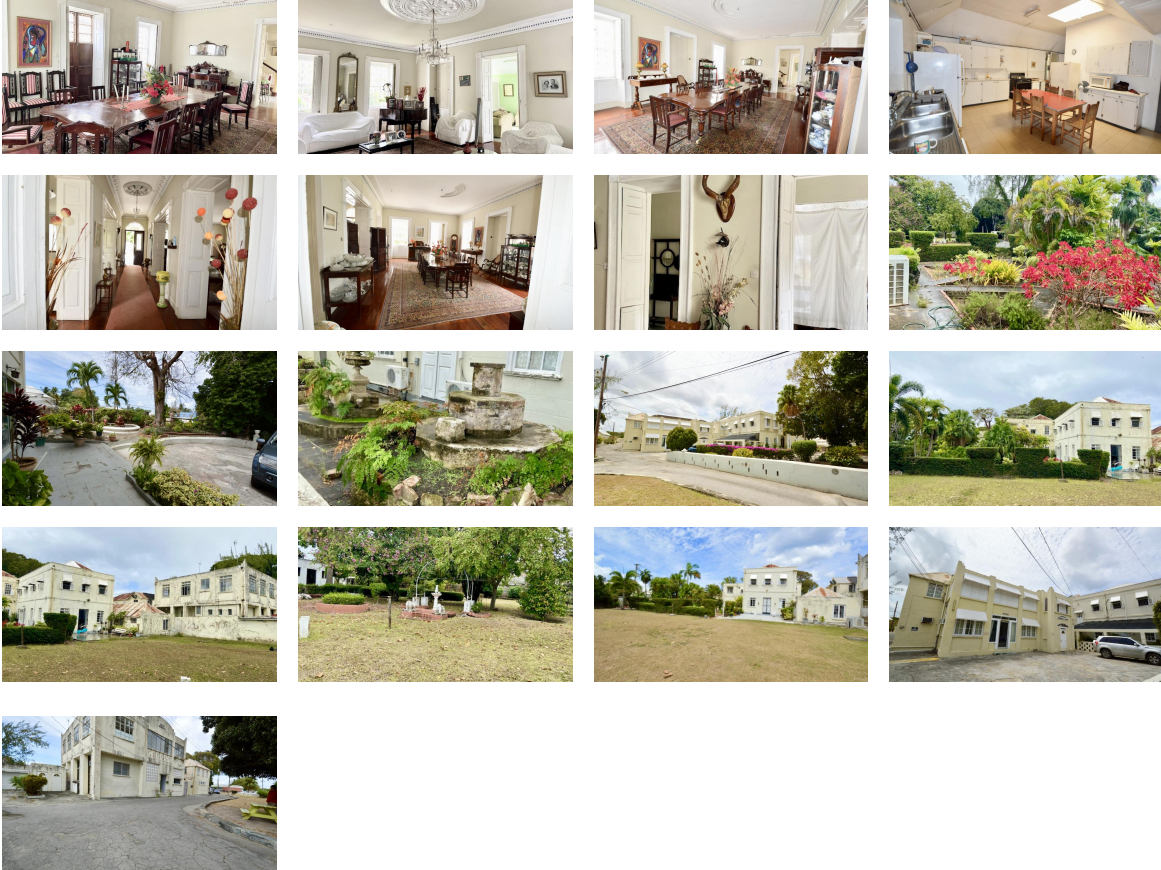

The property needs refurbishment and updating, the two-storey main building and the adjacent clinic would benefit from investment and could make a wonderful boutique hotel and restaurant. The property ideally located within a few minutes of Bridgetown, The Garrison Savannah, St. Lawrence Gap, and many other attractions.

With a rich history including and prime location, Woodside Greathouse is perfect for investors, historians or anyone looking to own and restore one of Barbados' grand plantation homes. Contact our real estate sales team at +1-246-537-6930 or info@realtorslimited.com for more information.
